Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-15, drawn to a nonwoven web, classified in class 442, subclass 414.
 - II. Claim 16, drawn to an absorbent article, classified in class 604, subclass various.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a filter material and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. During a telephone conversation with Robert Richards on 11/13/01 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1-15. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claim 16 is withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Tsai et al (5698322) in view of Duckett et al (5783505).

Tsai is concerned with the creation of a nonwoven web comprising a mixture of fibers (col. 9, lines 25-35). Said mixture including a sheath/core fiber comprising different forms of L,D-polylactide (col. 2, lines 40-55). Said sheath has a lower L:D

ration than said core (col. 5, lines 15-23). Tsai is silent with respect to the other fiber type comprising said mixture.

Duckett is concerned with the creation of a nonwoven web comprising a mixture of fibers. Said mixture including cellulose acetate (abstract). It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art to utilize cellulose acetate fibers as the other fiber comprising the mixture taught by Tsai. Such a modification would have been motivated by the desire to impart Tsai's web with increased strength.

With respect to claim 13, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize applicant's claimed percentages, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105, USPQ 233. The skilled artisan would have been motivated to utilize applicant's claimed fibers by the desire to vary the strength and absorbent properties of the web.

With respect to claim 1, the web of Tsai may inherently have a permeability and void volume within applicant's claimed ranges. If not, it would have been well within the level of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to configure the web within said ranges. The skilled artisan would have been motivated to vary the permeability and void volume by the desire to modify the hydrostatic head of the web.
